Plan Grows—Much De-

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 27.—Confidence that a final agreement of difficult debts will be submitted, prevailed in Washington as President Hoover sought to harmonize his international financial and postwar plans with those of France.

The Paris government's counter-proposal was accepted by Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson as expressing a "gratifying cordiality," but as it involved no new money, it did not fully the purpose of the president.

FURTHER DISCUSSIONS

He emphasized the necessity for further negotiations and predicted an early and successful conclusion would bring into existence a permanent peace between the United States and France.

Later, Mr. Stimson, after a flight by airplane for New York, he will sail on the Conte Grande and will see him and his wife when he will see him in conferences with Europe's leading economists.

The obstacles to an agreement have narrowed to three points. These are:

The time limit for the postponement of all inter-governmental debt and France's demand that Germany pay its share of the war reparations under the Young plan.

The third point is whether these payments be made the basis of credit in Germany and other central European countries.

CONCESSIONS CONTemplated

The fact that the support which the French government gave to the idea of a country for his plan was based mainly on the assumption there would be no further debts.

One suggestion advanced in diplomatic circles is that the two nations agree on each side on the three points at issue. The United States would consent to the Young plan and France's unconditional credits system while France would accept the debts charged on the credits and that they be available only to Germany and not to other powers.

headed down a side-street off Main street, heavily traversed thoroughfares. Four of the police were seriously injured, but none of them were hospitalized. In addition to the alleged rioters in hospital, medical attention was given to a woman who was a victim of a 70-year-old man—both bystanders—during the progress of the melee.

Most seriously hurt was Constable John McRae, who was struck in the head and almost prostrated when he was hit by a bullet from his own nightstick. Constable W. H. McRae and Stanley Hunt lay in a cot beside his fellow-officer with a broken nose and a fractured skull, but are in good condition today. An inspector, two sergeants and a constable were also bruised but remain in hospital.

Others, who have been connected with the riot, Ted Molinsky and Andy Olson were guarded in hospital, where statements were forthcoming from the Communists at a meeting Friday night. The two men are accused of being leaders of the mob. They are now in custody. Also arrested was Max Zelicki, Ivan Sterier, Pete Kukas, Steve Stachow and John Kukas. A constable arrived who police said was arrested as he struck down Constable Hunt.

WINDSOR, Ont., June 27—One policeman was badly beaten, three men were arrested, and others were being held in custody Saturday morning by Communists at a meeting Friday night. The meeting was addressed by A. A. Maga, Labor M.P. for Windsor.

OFFICER BADLY BEATEN

Policemen and soldiers were pressed into service to disperse the crowd, but when a stone was thrown from the building where the meeting was held, a constable of the city police force, was badly beaten as he attempted to stop the mob. He was assisted by other constables who came to his aid.

Heavy rain, which started to fall as the police began to gain control, caused the crowd to scatter, and most

TORONTO STARS PROBE

TORONTO, Ont., June 7—An investigation into reports that a battalion of soldiers was sent to the city with rifles, armed before York county council, is under way by Ontario's provincial department of Ontario. Officials declined to indicate the scope of the probe, but said that the report had to be cleared up.

It was reported that leaders of the underground Communist party were in surveillance. Deputy Reeve H. McHugh of East York said: "There are many Communists in our city, but no militia units. You know what these men do with their rifles. They take them out with a bang! With agitation, as far as a pitch as it is now, you never can tell what they will do."

The office of Superintendent, Edmonton Division, is abolished and will be taken over by General Superintendent, B. T. Campbell, Vancouver.

The office of assistant superintendent at Edmonton with 12 staff members is abolished and will be taken over by General Superintendent, Kingman, Demay and Daigle succeeds Campbell.

The office of assistant superintendent at Battisford is abolished and will be taken over by General Superintendent, G. H. Linnery.

C. L. Harris, Superintendent of the Canadian Pacific's rail yards at Montreal, engineer in charge of St. John's, Newfoundland, succeeds Mr. McMechan, engineer in charge of St. John's, Newfoundland.

The canal was being built wider than the original width of 100 feet, and 40,000 cubic feet per second now authorized, said Mr. McMechan.

The necessary work will have an adverse effect on navigation because it would shorten the distance between the port of Montreal and about one-half mile.

The original development of the project involved no economic loss and the present development is in the general scheme of developing waterway resources.

Finding Of Body Solves Mystery Of Missing Man

A 13-months-long mystery was solved Friday afternoon with the discovery of the body of Peter Robarge in a creek at Mile 91.5 on the Coal Branch, a mile and a half from where the disappearance took place, and camped in various parts of the creek.

Peter Robarge of Coal Valley, whose body was found in the same creek where he had been missing for 13 months. He is believed to have been a tramp, a vagrant, and possibly a poacher, and camped in various parts of the creek.

REAL ADVENTURE

Whether Wilkins and his crew get safely under the polar ice or vanish in the northern seas where so many explorers have disappeared, their enterprise not to be wanting in "thrills." Columbus in his primitive caravan had an easier time getting across the Atlantic than less ship-shape men had of finding a chance of being drowned.

It may be, as has been claimed, that the passage of the Atlantic was the most hazardous part of the adventure. For the sake of those engaged in it, that is to be hoped. But staying will have to be shown that even wallowing in mid-ocean with disabled engines is more dangerous than diving under ice bergs of unknown depth and size.

Whether or not the voyagers emerge on the Alaska side of the ice cap, and whatever science may gain from the undertaking, there is no question as to the risks they are taking, and the further explorations will be made by millions with the interest that school boys generate over the exploits of Captain Singleton, or that their senior find in the voyages of Captain Cook.

EXPORTING ONCE MORE

Canada is once more exporting butter, 25,000 boxes having left Montreal for England since the beginning of the year, against none at all during the corresponding period a year ago. The movement is not heavy, compared with what it was in some of the former years when Canadians were producing on an export basis. But it is growing rapidly, exports for last week being more than double those of the week before.

Eventually the Canadian product is able to find a demand in the overseas markets, even against New Zealand butter, with which some authorities used to tell us Canada would never compete. In some of the former years when Canadians were producing on an export basis, it is better than the price at home, since the movement is outward, and is growing in volume.

This re-commencement of butter exports is another evidence of the rapid revival of the dairying industry in Canada that has resulted from the fall in grain prices and the turning of attention from grain growing to the raising of farm animals. It is to be hoped that there has been a shift in the same direction in some of the other grain producing countries, and that competition in the world markets is accordingly keen.

The Canadian butter is in these circumstances recommending itself to the overseas consumer as strong proof of its excellent quality, and gives promise that the Dominion may regain the place it held in the world's butter markets in years gone by.

WHAT ABOUT THE STATEMENT?

Somebody, it appears, smuggled into the Stamp report a chart which the commission had not approved and did not intend to include. When the matter came up in parliament, Mr. James T. Ross and Compton said he did not understand how the slight-of-hand work had been done. Parliament ought to insist that he find out. Regrettably, the official who engineered the omission of the commission should be relieved of the responsibility of superintending the publication of any official reports.

The stamp report showed that since 1924 farmers have been able to get better prices than wheat outside the pool than through the pool, about three-quarters of the time. Farmers' leaders do not seem to have paid much attention to the truth or falsity of that statement. They talked a good deal, and with proper warmth, about the impropriety of the chart being included in the report, and of course disapproved of this fine hand of the grain trade spreading malicious propoganda for the injury of the wheat pool.

It is not possible that the man who grew up in a living with more interest in the statement itself than in the impropper inclusion of the chart in the commission's report or the parliamentary declamations against the grain buyers if the stamp report failed to do its job. It is to be hoped that it did well in its efficiency with a view to increasing the efficiency of the pool. If it is not a fact, steps should be taken to make that widely known; and the official who tried to circulate false information under the aegis of the Stamp commission should be punished.

DRIFTING"
This week it has been Calgary's turn to be swamped by an influx of unemployed men from other parts of the west. Last week Edmonton had similar experience. In each case the rush of relief measures were to be adopted, in which non-residents might be asked to share. The result is likely to come from the authorities with the option of refusing food to large numbers of hungry men, or of spending the money of their taxpayers in giving meals to men who are not entitled to such aid, and could be making provision.

The "drifter" problem is increasingly serious. Thousands of men are now riding freight trains in the western provinces every day. They may be doing as well as possible. Some have moved from centre to centre as part of the strategy of agitators. There may even be cases in which one town or city avoids its own responsibility, by spreading a report that its men are to go to some other point in search of help. In sheer self-defence each municipality is obliged in such circumstances to draw the line sharply between residents and non-residents.

But meantime these men are in need, and their need cannot be met while they continue to roam the country and concentrate where the chances of finding work might be better than elsewhere. If direct relief is to be the means employed to provide for idle men, under the arrangement proposed by Senator Robertson, the federal or provincial government will have to take a very wise situation in hand, order that uniform relief measures shall be adopted in all centres, and put an end to the "drifting" that turns so easily into a stamped.

THE BRITISH EXPEDITION

London—Premier Louis Cyr has addressed a letter to Maxime Da Costa and Mr. James Craig declaring the British government to be deeply anxious that King George's appeal for reconciliation in Ireland should not be made in vain.

Mr. Da Costa, the official who engineered the inclusion of the official who engineered the omission of the stamp report, is to be relieved of the responsibility of the establishment of a cabaret and dance hall at Baden park.

A. McDonald of Winnipeg has bought the commission plan at Marquette.

Quebec—Two-thirds of the business district of the town was wiped out by fire yesterday.

Panic Victim

BY EDGAR A. GUEST

He built his pride on money.

But one day the market fell:

Now skies above him are grey.

What can he do? What can he tell?

I do not write to make it worse.

For money all men need.

But time has picked his pocket.

And he is poor indeed.

About and ever near him

Are pleasures good to know.

But still they fail to cheer him.

What can he do? What can he tell?

Who gives to gold trinkets

The keeping of his joy tell.

I do not write to make it worse.

For money all men need.

But time has picked his pocket.

And he is poor indeed.

Drives to lasting dividends

Are not to be had.

Brookville Recorder and Times—Having recently decided to accept the report of the commission, the members of the legislature voted to accept the same. The Prime Minister has presented a bland new special railway bill, which, though it fails to meet the demands of the commission, is simply Canada's way of getting along with a view to increasing the efficiency of the pool. If it is not a fact, steps should be taken to make that widely known; and the official who tried to circulate false information under the aegis of the Stamp commission should be punished.

Ottawa—During the details on the Ministry reorganization, Mr. Bennett described the duties at the Washington Embassy as "chiefly decorative," which looks up our point.

A Thrill That Comes Once in Lifetime By Webster

Keeping Mentally Fit

BY JOSEPH JASTROW, A.B., A.M., Ph.D., L.L.D.

SHEDDING SKINS AND LEAVING THEM ON

"I understand a woman recently," he reported to me this statement: "that leading psychologists are creating a new kind of mental hygiene which promises to bring about a revolution in the field of mental health. It is based upon the idea that the mind is as susceptible to disease as the body is to physical disease."

My first reaction would be that some one was irresponsible for that statement. I am inclined to believe that "leading psychologists" are created by the imagination of a person who has never heard of the term "mental hygiene" and has never seen a doctor who practices it.

My second reaction would be that the statement is true, but that it is not quite as important as the first. Again there is a tradition of mental hygiene which has been developed over a long period of time.

What we mean by mental hygiene is the avoidance of mental disease, and the promotion of mental health.

There is no question that this often comes from a desire to live longer, to live more comfortably, and to have more pleasure in life.

What we mean by mental health is the avoidance of mental disease, and the promotion of mental health.

HEALTH IN CONFINEMENT

Any person who abides in confinement, medical books will be impressed with the fact that a large number of diseases are contracted by persons who are confined. This is not to say that all confined persons become ill, but it is to say that a large number of them do.

The program was difficult and requiring much concentration, yet delightful, and the audience was a student at the University in both style and manner of presentation.

Miss Swain is the possessor of a clear, ringing voice, clear in texture and true in tone. She sings easily and naturally, with a grace and poise that bring many smiles to grief. She has a natural gift for comedy, which enables her to get to the bottom of a witticism and bring forth a broad smile.

The Canadian Pacific Railway runs from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean. Its lines lead from Vancouver and Victoria to Japan and China, and from Montreal, Quebec and Saint John to Great Britain and the Continent. It operates winter cruises to the Mediterranean, the West Indies and the Orient, and summer cruises to Norway; a winter service to Bermuda, and a coastal service to Alaska. Its chateaux and hotels represent the latest word in comfort and luxury. Its telephones connect 15,000 points of communication. Its express travellers' checks are current all over the world. to be uplifted, inspired—who but the Pioneer Women of Canada could have accomplished this work?

Behind officers, engineers, workmen and behind every man employed in this system, is and always will be the fine spirit of Canadian Womanhood

From 567,480 telegrams from 435 offices in 1887 to 6,420,299 telegrams from 1650 offices 42 years later is the record of growth of Canadian Pacific Telegraphs between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts of the Dominion of Canada. On December 31, 1886, the outside plant consisted of 4,525 miles of poles, 14,505 miles of wire and 50 miles of cable, most of the latter being used to connect Vancouver Island with the mainland. Extension of the lines and the provision for increased traffic was so great that on December 31, 1930, there were 17,718 miles of poles, 172,070 miles of wire, and 324 miles of cable containing 5,505 miles of wire. Cablegrams filed in 1928 numbered 440,539 and cablegrams received were 383,797, totalling 824,336 in all for the year. The broadcast transmission system of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's Telegraphs covers a network of 4,700 miles in Canada.

OTTAWA, June 27.—A great deal of comment since last week seemed to revolve around which to move cattle from Canada to the United Kingdom, it was announced Friday by Hon. Robert Lee, Minister of Agriculture, who said he had no objection to the plan started this season the results have been of such a character that many more cattle were available for export than the original supply contemplated for the case of

The new arrangements mean that there will be space to ship over 10,000 head from here until the end of the year. This will mean that unshipped, namely 415,000 head.

MORE BOATS ARRANGED

A statement issued by Mr. Weir said: "In addition to the boats of the Canadian Pacific, there have been some arrangements made to have a special weekly service available to arrange the following seasons: Antwerp July 12, August 2 and earl., October 10; Liverpool July 12, August 2, her son Collier; Melville Head July 12, August 2, September 10; Melville Head August 30; Dunfield Head September 10; Berlin, September 18; Copenhagen September 18; Hamburg October 15; Melville Head, October 20; Durban November 10; Cape Town, November 13; Comodoro, November 14; Comodoro, December 20."

FOOTED CATTLE

The Ministry of Agriculture advised IBM on account of the outbreaks of foot and mouth disease in Ireland and the United Kingdom that all cattle should be shipped to Canada as soon as possible for at least six weeks to prevent the spread of the disease. Practically all movements of cattle in the United Kingdom have been stopped since the outbreak of the disease, but the outbreak of the foot and mouth disease has caused the Ministry to decide that cattle should be shipped to the United Kingdom but only finished cattle, unless it can be shown that diseased cattle cannot be moved, will be sent to the United Kingdom but must be moved under license for slaughter.

Funeral Services for Nine-Year-Old Bobby Dunbar

Held Saturday

"Grieve less little no man—" Green men might have blushed and failed when they had to face the decision that little 9-year-old Bobby Dunbar must die.

That decision comes once in a lifetime to most men, but it came easy to this boy, who died what man might have done, he leaped in to save his sister, and both drowned.

GRIEVING TODAY—They grew up together; they played together; they swam together. Bobby made it that way. He took time to meet, not it came easy to him. He was a man who did what man might have done, he leaped in to save his sister, and both drowned.

And in death he has joined his sister, who died in a grave in Beaumont cemetery at 2 p.m. Saturday. Little Bobby had been beside the girl he had died in trying to save.

The boy's body finally concluded the brief service held in Howard and McLea's funeral home, and was interred with the parents, friends and relatives of the two, who acted as pallbearers. Following the service to the grave?

$850,000 IS CUT OFF CITY ASSESSMENTS

Result of Hudson's Bay
Appeal Will Mean Tax Reduction to Co'y

Although a total of some $850,000, or just $150,000 worth of a million dollars, has been leaped from the city tax bill by the result of the Hudson's Bay appeal.

This will mean a big cut in the taxes which the company has to pay the city, and it also opens the way for all owners of surrounding property to appeal their assessments with every prospect of success. It is the first definite statement in rates that surround the city.

CITY Assessor Walker received the letter of the Hudson's Bay company yesterday, and the assessment was reduced by $102,200.

The remaining 126 lots are in the second south of the tracks and west of the city, and is not quite so heavy a cut as made by the judge in respect of the Hudson's Bay property.

The judge has made no statement in regard to the amount that the golf links will be reduced, but the amount must be reduced in fair ratio to the rest of the city.

This says the City Assessor, will increase a reduction of 50 per cent to the golf links.

The original assessment was $446,410, and the assessment of the Hudson's Bay company cut this amount to $304,410 or a reduction of $142,000 in all.

This is in the neighborhood of thirty

TRADING LIGHT, PRICES ERRATIC IN WHEAT MART

Canadian Press

WINNIPEG June 27—No trade was comparatively light and the price movement erratic in the wheat market. Adverse crop reports for western Canada and Alaska caused a slight dip at the opening and after a mild gain drop sharply to 10 cents lower by mid-morning. The July futures finished the day at 62 1/2 cents a bushel.

There was a real basis for a mild gain in the morning as demand discontinued speculative buying.

Prices, presented in cash wheat and trade in western grain, were limited to small sales in cash and futures.

JANE ARDEN By Barrett and Ellis

ISHAM USED CAPTAIN SLY TO GET THE JEWEls OUT OF THE TOWER--THE CAPTAIN WAS IN DEBT TO MISTER CLUTCH, SO ISHAM BRIDGED HIM TO MAIL LETTERS FOR HIM.

I FOUND ONE OF THE LETTERS IN SLY'S POCKET, BUT I DIDN'T REALIZE IT WAS A LETTER UNTIL I TRIED TO USE THE HOLLOW CANDLE.

SEE, THE LETTERS ARE MAILED TO YOU BY CABLE DELIVERY, NEW YORK, AND I AM ANXIOUS TO CALL FOR THEM BEFORE ISHAM GETS THEM AND YOU'LL GET YOUR NECKLACE BACK.

THAT'S RIGHT--THE FINE OLD NECKLACE IS LOST!

IT'S A PITY, BUT I'M A MOTHER TO SEARCH REVERENTLY UNTIL SHE HAS BROUGHT THE LETTERS TO ME.

"I am certainly thankful that I was able to see myself and get myself in shape again," she said, "but I'm still nervous and rear."

It has now been four months since Mrs. H. E. D. was reinstated because of those terrible stammering fits.

THEM CARE SUDDENLY

"I would like to tell you how I have helped my three year old son overcome his speech defect. The trouble seemed to be quite sudden and severe, and he uttered only a few words at a sentence without stammering."

The doctor from the first has been to ignore it, but to let him know that we were positive his diminished speech was due to a physical disorder, thus impressing him with the idea.

In the meantime, I gathered all that he is different and there is no lie at the bottom.
